"Negro Capital of the Nation"

ST. LOUIS BLUES
Walter W. C. Handy may have had a hand in the blues as it is known today, but he is not the only one who has. In fact, the blues are a product of the Negro South, and it is from that region that they came to the Negro North. Handy is not the only one who has had a hand in the blues, but he is the one who has made them known to the world. He is the one who has made them a part of the Negro South, and it is from that region that they came to the Negro North.
